Joanna Waddill Chapter Plans Series of Events

At the meeting of Joanna Waddill chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. J. Abbott on Olive street, plans for an all-day meeting to be held in April at the home of Mrs. W. K. Rust in Covington were completed. Mrs. Rust, a member of the chapter now residing in Covington, has invited the chapter to her home Wednesday, April 11, and it was decided to let this outing take the place of the regular April meeting.

The all-day excursion will include a motor trip about Covington and to an interesting garden, dinner at the Rust home followed by the chapter meeting, and in the afternoon a meeting with a number of Covington clubwomen for a social hour and informal program.

Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. W. C. Young were the hostesses for yesterday's meeting, which was a delightful one. Mrs. W. Paul Webber, the chapter president, presided and various items of business were considered, chief among which were those pertaining to the state convention which will be held here in May.

Both the Joanna Waddill and the Henry Watkins Allen chapters will be hostesses at the convention which promises to be one of unusual interest. It was announced at the meeting yesterday that several national officers of the U. D. C. will attend in addition to other prominent members. Among these will be the president-general, Mrs. W. E. Massey of Little Rock, Ark., and the historian-general, Mrs. John Anderson of Raleigh, N. C. Mrs. Hugh Gillespie of Raymond, Miss., who so much resembles Mrs. Jefferson Davis, the wife of the Confederate president, that she is known as the U. D. C.'s "Mrs. Jefferson Davis," will be present and will wear an authentic costume of the 60's.

The library report was of interest and this report from Miss Mae Barrow, librarian of the public libary in the courthouse, stated that 5,152 readers have been accommodated during the past month. Six books and ten dollars in cash were received from the American Legion auxiliary and the Junior American Legion auxiliary contributed 13 books.

Two new members were present, Mrs. E. W. McClure and Mrs. W. E. Gilkison, and these were introduced. Two other new members were announced, Mrs. May Lee Denham and Mrs. C. J. Becker.

An ice course was served during the social hour by Misses Edith and Mary Elizabeth Abbott, daughters of the hostess member. Those present were: Mrs. James Leake Stirling, Mrs. John T. Bethany, Mrs. A. J. Noland, Mrs. W. Paul Webber, Mrs. Leo Franques, Mrs. Elvira Albritton, Mrs. Mary W. Robertson, Mrs. M. H. Arbour, Mrs. L. U. Babin, Mrs. W. E. Gilkison, Mrs. E. W. McClure, Mrs. Abbott, and Mrs. Young.

Delta Zeta Mothers and Patronesses Plan Tea Dance.

A spring tea dance to be given in honor of the seniors of the Delta Zeta sorority was planned at the meeting of Mothers' and Patronesses' club held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Brock on St. Hypolite street. The affair will take place on April 7 at the Field house and will be one of the interesting events of the post-Easter season.

Following the business meeting a lovely tea hour was enjoyed by the members. The tea table was arranged in a theme of pink and green, the sorority colors, with lovely pink snapdragons in the center. Mrs. Eugene A. Conway poured tea and Mrs. V. L. Roy served coffee. Miss Helen Brock, the daughter of the hostess and the president of the active Delta Zeta chapter, with Miss Joyce Love Allen, assisted in serving.

Those present were: Mrs. W. M. Langhart, Mrs. Sidney Arbour, Mrs. W. S. Wolf, Mrs. Eugene A. Conway, Mrs. C. N. Campbell, Mrs. Jesse A. Nugent, Mrs. Guy Riche, Mrs. V. L. Roy, Mrs. Alfred H. Study Club Entertained by Yearbook Committee

The members of the yearbook committee of the Study club were hostesses at the meeting held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. K. Strickland on Government street. Mrs. Strickland, Mrs. Arnold Perkins, and Miss Mary Reed compose the committee and arranged for the meeting an interesting book review by Miss Essae M. Culver. Miss Culver, the executive secretary of the Louisiana Library commission, reviewed "Anthony Adverse" by Hervey Allen.

Following Miss Culver's delightful talk there was a tea hour. A salad course was served by the hostesses.

Those present were: Mrs. Jasper A. Welch, Mrs. Preston Barnes, Jr., Mrs. W. B. Robert, Mrs. Justin C. Daspit, Mrs. J. A. Tucker, Miss Isabelle Sparks, Mrs. John M. Wilson, Mrs. J. O. Armstong, Miss Joan Miller, Mrs. Arnold Perkins, Miss Reed, and Mrs. Strickland.

Chapter C of P. E. O. Holds Constitutional Drill

Entertaining at her home in College Town, Mrs. Walter Prichard was hostess to the members of Chapter C of P. E. O. on Monday afternoon. Following the business session, Mrs. J. A. Shortess conducted a clever constitutional drill.

The living room of the Prichard home was decorated with jonquils and narcissi and during the social hour the hostess served an attractive refreshment course, emphasizing the St. Patrick day theme.

Two guests were present, Mrs. A. J. Grievish of Lincoln, Neb., and Mrs. Charles Campbell of New Orleans. Members attending were: Mrs. C. T. Dowell, Jr., Mrs. C. W. Edgerton, Mrs. W. R. Eidson, Mrs. E. F. Fleming, Jr, Mrs. Fred Frey, Mrs. C. I. Jones, Mrs. E. L. Jordan, Mrs. J. G. Lee, Jr., Mrs. G. C. Shirley, Mrs. J. A. Shortess, Miss Helene Sliffe, Mrs. C. W. Upp and the hostess, Mrs. Prichard.

Reviewers Club Holds Meeting at Tugwell Home

The much-talked-of novel "Anthony Adverse," by Hervey Allen, is being discussed at a number of club meetings and was reviewed by Miss Ella V. Aldriel at the Reviewers club meeting held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. P. Tugwell in Delphine Place. Mrs. John E. Coxe was co-hostess.

In addition to the splendid presentation of "Anthony Adverse," the club program included a group of other interesting reviews. Mrs. Marshall H. Gandy reviewed "As the Earth Turns," by Gladys Carroll, and Mrs. John R. McKinnie gave a short talk on "Oil for the Lamps of China," by Alice Tisdale Hobart. Mrs. Jess Johnson reported on the Theater Guild's latest production, "They Shall Not Die," by John Wexley.

The program was an unusually interesting one and at its completion the hostesses served a salad course. Those present were: Miss Aldrich, Moss Marjorie Arbour, Mrs. J. M. Barnett, Mrs. E. M. Barkin, Mrs. Hooper Connell, Mrs. Gandy, Mrs. C. L. Garland, Mrs. C. J. Huguet, Mrs. James Jennings, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. C. Kean, Mrs. J. T. Laycock, Mrs. W. L. McKee, Mrs. McKinnie, Miss Clyde Mobley, Mrs. Ivy Morris, Mrs. Marvin G. Osborn, Mrs. O. W. Rosenwall, Mrs. O. M. Thompson, Mrs. Tugwell and Mrs. Coxe.

CHIC IN COTTONS BY MARIAN MARTIN

Complete, Diagrammed, Marian Martin Sew Chart, Included.

PATTERN 9951

We are so happy that cottons are enjoying such tremendous popularity again this season. It's the grandest feeling to slip into a crisp cotton frock and step out to have a rollicking good time—knowing that you're looking smart as can be. Here's a sportsy model for a gay cotton—with a yoke and perked out shoulders, and a bit of the sleeve showing beneath. Its seamings achieve the new symmetrical effect in vogue. The silhouette is a tall and slender one, with the belt worn only in back—pointed seamings do the trick in front.

Pattern 9951 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 requires 3⅞ yards 36 inch fabric.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, the style number and size of each pattern.

Order your copy of the new Marian Martin spring pattern book—a practical spring sewing guide, offering stunning models for all occasions for grown-ups, juniors and youngsters, and for the woman who needs slenderizing lines. Price of new book 15 cents, book and pattern together 25 cents.

Send your order to State-Times Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth street, New York N. Y.
