Entertainments

Miss Ray Holcombe Honored at Lovely Bridge-Shower.

As a delightful compliment to Miss Ray Holcombe, one of the summer's most charming bride-elects, Mrs. Paul C. Drury (Verna Vignes) and Mrs. Charles Aby (Ethel Dixon) entertained with a delightful bridge-shower at the home of Mrs. Drury on yesterday afternoon.

Guests were received in rooms made most attractive by additions of crepe myrtle and roses arranged in baskets and bowls and after a series of games had been played, little Frances Holcombe and Margaret Preston, dressed in checked gingham dresses with white aprons and heads tied with gay bandanas, entered, carrying a large laundry basket, in which were many attractive and useful gifts, which were presented to the honoree.

In bridge, the high scorer, Mrs. Bertram Babers, was presented with hose, and Miss Beverly Riley was given lingerie for second score. Miss Bernice Bouanchaud, who drew the consolation, was awarded linen handkerchiefs.

A dainty salad and dessert course was served the guests, who were: Mrs. Bertram Babers, Mrs. James Helm, Mrs. Howard Wittier, Mrs. G. T. Owen, Mrs. Louis Doherty, Mrs. Seid Hendrix, Mrs. Fred Hagaman, Mrs. Carlton Kemp, Mrs. William Dodson, Mrs. Charles W. Lane of Shreveport, Miss Katherine Hill Miss Willie Frank Borron, Miss Scott Duchein, Miss Marnie Holcombe, Miss Marie Louise Jackson, Miss Elizabeth Critz, Miss Margaretta Lesage, Miss Beverly Riley, Miss Dorothy Fleming, Miss Elsie Klean, Miss Bernice Bouanchaud and Mrs. Frank Preston.

Mrs. R. M. Henderson Honors Visitor at Bridge.

A most delightful bridge-luncheon was given Wednesday by Mrs. R. M. Henderson of Sunset Heights in honor of Miss Martha Stewart, who is a charming visitor here of Dallas, Tex.

Vases of vari-colored asters and dusty-miller were tastefully arranged about the rooms, where the games were played.

The first prize, dainty lingerie, was presented to Miss Darlene White, and the low score award, an attractive compact, was won by Mrs. G. D. Ewell. Consolation, a chiffon dance handkerchief was drawn by Miss Alder McGuire. The honoree was presented with a pair of silk hose.

After the games, Mrs. Henderson served a delicious luncheon to the guests who were: Miss Etdythe McGuire, Miss Louise Bushart, Miss Alder McGuire, Miss Darlene White, Miss Elizabeth Stewart, Miss Martha Stewart, the honoree, Mrs. G. D. Ewell, and the hostess, Mrs. R. M. Henderson.

Chi Omega Wednesday Club Meets With Mrs. Peters.

Mrs. Charles W. Peters was a delightful hostess of yesterday when she received members of the Chi Omega Wednesday club and a few additional guests at the home of her sister, Mrs. George H. Burnham on the Perkins road.

The colors of cardinal and straw, emblematic of Chi Omega were seen in the giant zinnias which were effectively arranged about the living and dining rooms and in the refreshment course which followed the games, these colors were also featured.

Mrs. Tom Dupree received a lovely purse for high score, while a dainty string of beads was presented to Miss Beverly Favrot for second score. A handmade handkerchief was given to Mrs. Donald Caldwell, who drew the consolation prize and a handsome photograph was presented to Miss Louis Quinn, who was a special guest.

Those playing were: Mrs. Tom Dupree, Mrs. Bullion A. Osterberger, Mrs. Donald Caldwell, Miss Doris Palmer, Mrs. Xavier Holt, Miss Lois Quinn, Miss Beverly Favrot, Mrs. Bingham Stewart, Mrs. Berlin Perkins, Jr., Mrs. Joe Butterworth, Mrs. V. A. Miller of Lake Arthur, Miss Margaret Lanius, Mrs. George H. Burnham and Mrs. C. W. Peters.

Vacation Day Card Party Given at Harmony Club.

The Harmony club yesterday afternoon afforded a most delightful setting for the annual Vacation day party, at which members of Temple Sisterhood were hostesses. Bright zinnias, stately canna lilies and other summer flowers were intermingled to make a colorful background for the game tables and bridge, mah jongg and lotto were played.

The prizes were most acceptable and during the afternoon an attractive refreshment course was enjoyed.

Prize winners were Miss Leah Kahn, Miss Lydia Sommers, Mrs. Dan Greenburg, Mrs. Gus Weill and Mrs. R. Sokolosky.

Those playing were Mrs. E. Karpe, Mrs. L. J. Mendelsohn, Mrs. L. Kahn, Mrs. I. Moyse, Mrs. F. Schmulen, Mrs. J. Kantrow, Mrs. E. Joseph, Mrs. L. Aaron, Mrs. A. Kling, Mrs. A. Elgutter, Mrs. W. G. Weddings

Richard-Jeter.

Miss Thelma Jeter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Jeter of Welch became the bride of L. H. Richard at the First Presbyterian church of Welsh, Reverend E. M. Stewart of DeRidder read the service, the double ring ceremony being used.

The bride is a graduate of the Welsh High school and Southwestern Louisiana institute, Lafayette.

The groom is a graduate of the Louisiana State university, Baton Rouge, having been athletic instructor in the Welsh High school for the past year. He has accepted the same position for the coming year.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Richard will make their home in Welsh.—Lake Charles American Press.

Gurney-Conrad.

Although quietly celebrated, the wedding of Miss Alida Mather Conrad and Mr. William Brewster Gurney of Boston, solemnized Wednesday morning at 11:30 o'clock at St. James Episcopal church, was an event of much interest because of the prominence of the contracting parties. Before a large group of relatives and close friends, the impressive double ring service was read by Rev. Malcolm Lockhart.

Pink gladioli and lacy clusters of pink crepe myrtle were arranged against a background of tall palms in tall standards about the church and on the altar beautiful pink radiante roses were gracefully grouped, while burning cathedral candles completed a charming effect.

The bride entered with her father, Mr. Frederick D. Conrad to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Prof. W. B. Clark. A girl of unusual charm, she was beautiful in a fall model of colonial brown pannel velvet especially becoming to her brunette loveliness, with becoming Empire hat of the same rich shade and matching accessories. Her flowers were exquisite Talisman roses and valley lilies tied with bronze ribbons. For the traditional "something old," the bride wore a handsome diamond cross which her maternal grandmother, the late Mrs. A. L. Duncan Conrad had worn on her wedding day and the Sigma Chi fraternity pin her grandfather wore at his marriage.

Mr. Duncan Conrad, only brother of the bride, served as best man to Mr. Gurney and Mr. Conrad B. Loret and Mr. James J. Bailey, her cousins, were ushers.

The fair young bride is a member of an old and honored family of this section and has been a popular member of society here, her charm of manner endearing her to many friends. Mr. Gurney is a member of a prominent Massachusetts family and during his year's stay here has made a number of friends in business and social circles of the city. He is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and a member of Theta Xi fraternity.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gurney left by motor for an extended trip through the east and upon their return will be at home to their friends at 905 North street where they have taken an apartmnt.
